

Wednesday 15 May 2024 Brew Up! Industrial Collections Network

Online via Zoom

Networks, Forums, Sharing Information and Best Practice

This online session will explore the existing landscape of industrial heritage-linked networks and forums, how we can best talk to each other across the North, and how to share experience and collaborate effectively in the current museum environment.

Time	Activity
10:00-10.10	Ian Bapty, MD North Museum Development Adviser and North East Regional Lead Introduction and objectives of the session.
10.10-10.30	Mike Nevell, Industrial Heritage Support Officer What does the existing landscape of industrial heritage networks and forums look like?
10.30-10.50	Paddy McNulty, Railway Partnerships Manager, National Railway Museum Developing and managing relationship between museums, industrial heritage groups, enthusiasts, and stakeholders. Sharing the challenges, successes, and highlights.
10.50-11.05	Break
11.05-11:25	Margaret Harrison, Head of Programmes, AIM AIM's support for museums including industrial heritage museums, and their work around networks.
11.25-12.00	Group discussion and networking opportunities.

